

Ellen Fellmann • Biography

Ellen Fellmann works as a composer, artist and film director in the intersection of musical and visual composition. Study of music, classical vocal art and piano in Munich, academic study of musicology and philosophy in Munich and Berlin (Magister). Her practice is influenced by the thoughts of the philosopher Jacques Derrida and his theory of meaning. She thematises the differences as well as the contact-planes and the capability of communication between music, (moving) image and space.

As an interdisciplinary artist her work includes different forms of expression and media : instrumental and electro-acoustic compositions, multichannel soundchoreographies, audiovisual art, fieldrecordings, installations, photoworks and paintings as well as music films.

Grant from Hauptstadtkulturfonds Berlin 2003. Guest artist at the Electronic Studio of the Technical University Berlin, start of electro-acoustic spatialisation and audiovisual multi-channel composition in 2003. Bursary for International Summer School for New Music Darmstadt 2004, Artist-in-residence grant from the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs for Résidences internationales aux Récollets Paris in 2006.
